

Rudderless Vineyard Shiraz 2015

Posted on 31 August 2017.

Excellent name for a winery. I think we all feel a bit rudderless at whites.

Succulent style, and smooth with it. I'm smelling mixed berries, ginger biscuits, plenty of spice, and a little vanilla. Medium bodied, fruits of the forest, silky fine grained tannin, layers of spice, balanced acidity, and a fresh and juicy finish. Balance here is spot on. A little more finesse and sophistication than your usual McLaren Vale Shiraz, perhaps.
